3

challenges

The challenge is international global events linked to the world, such as the Great Depression or pandemics, as well as local events like political and economic changes.

○ factors influence the price of gold ●

IMPACT OF INFLATION RATES

Gold is a safe haven during high inflation, driving up demand and prices. Lower inflation decreases demand and prices.

INTERNATIONAL PRICE WHEN IMPORTED

Gold prices are measured in US dollars, so international price changes affect local import costs. Higher international prices mean higher local costs.

4

conclusion

1

Gold is subject to the influence of multiple factors, some of which can be predicted and may affect it both negatively and positively.

2

In general, gold prices are the safest and most reliable investment throughout history.
